PORTSMOUTH COORDINATED REPONSE TO SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER (PCR/SUD) --. The committee was formed in 2019 through the collaboration of former Senator Martha Fuller Clark, representatives from the Portsmouth City Council, the Economic Development Commission (EDC) and Pinetree Institute, a non-profit focused on building trauma responsive communities. The overarching goal of PCR/SUD is to address the gap in coordination and access across the many programs in the area that provide support for addiction prevention, treatment, recovery, job reentry and ongoing support. The committee met last week to review the work of its five task forces, all focused on addressing the growing addiction problem in the region.
